Dear Logan,

My name is David Day and I am the Head Men's Soccer Coach at La Roche College.

I am reaching out to you because you have been identified as a prospective student-athlete in the graduating class of 2019.

This summer, I will be coaching at the Junior Day Men's Soccer Prospect Camp & Showcase on Wednesday, June 22nd. This event will be hosted by La Roche College in Pittsburg, PA. We will be joined by college coaches from Duquesne University, Longwood University, Seton Hill University, and others.

Junior Day Soccer events are designed with two sessions. You can choose between the Morning Session or the Afternoon Session. Please register for the event that works best for your schedule and your commute from Davidsville. All registration takes place at www.JuniorDaySoccer.com.

We are excited to be a part of Junior Day and we hope that you are able to consider it. If you have any questions about Junior Day or about La Roche College or our Men's Soccer program, then please let me know. I can be reached at the email address below.

Once you and your family look at www.JuniorDaySoccer.com please let me know if you think it is something you will be able to do this summer.
